

Zaki Aijaz Qureshi

Mr. Zaki is currently serving as the Technical Director for Roshan Packages Ltd. While leading the technical function, he has been at the forefront of plant erection from planning to physical realization and quality management systems. Leading numerous projects independently has sharpened his skills as a strategist and project analyst and he has developed extensive experience of delivering large scale projects. His skills of working, managing and participating in infrastructural development matters are widely acknowledged. He has keen interests in team development through mentoring and professional training programs.

Mr. Zaki is also working as General Secretary of Sunder Industrial Welfare Association and is a director of Roshan Enterprises and Roshan Sun Tao Paper Mills Pvt. Limited. He holds a diploma in supply chain management and advanced management from Pakistan Institute of Management and a Managing Family Business diploma from Institute of Business Administration.